

Pension reforms and behavioral perspectives on pensions

(FU Berlin, Hebrew University and CRC 190)

Preliminary program

Location DIW Berlin

30.11 and 1.12. 2018

---

30.11

9:45 - 10:30 Eytan Sheshinski: Adverse selection in annuity markets

10:30 - 11:15 Stefan Etgeton: Pension reforms and savings

Break

11:30 – 12:15 Ayal Kimhi: The Effects of Increasing the Formal Retirement Age on Labor Supply: Gender and Family Considerations

12:15 – 13:00 Carsten Schröder: TBA

Lunch

14:00 – 14:45 Orly Sade: Can Mandatory Minimum Annuity Laws Have Unintended Consequences? - An Experimental Investigation

14:45 – 15:30 Hans Martin von Gaudecker: The Effect of the Affordable Care Act on the Labor Supply, Savings, and Social Security of Older Americans

Break

16:00 – 16:30 Holger Lüthen: Life expectancy and the pension system

16:30 – 17:00 Clemens Hetschko: Retirement, Wellbeing and Unemployment Scarring

17:00 – 17:30 Astrid Harnack: TBA

17:30 – 18:00 Peter Haan: The effect of working life on human capital investment

Dinner

1.12.2018

9:00-9:45 Antonina Grohmann: TBA

9:45-10:30 Maya Haran Rosen: When Implementing Fintech Advancement, Does Financial Regulation Unintentionally Ignore Less Privileged Populations? The Investigation of Regulatory Change, Objective and Subjective Financial Literacy

Break

11:00 – 11:45 Joachim Winter: Financial education and household self-insurance

11:45 – 12:30 Tabea Bucher-Koenen: How much pension will you get? - The introduction of a pensions dashboard in a multi- pillar system

Lunch

13:15 – 14:00 Daniel Ben-David: Robo Advisor Adoption and Trust - Remarks from Lab Experiment

14:00 – 14:45 Johannes Geyer: Employment effects of pension reforms

14:45- 15:30 Future research – general discussion

End of workshop

Organizers: Peter Haan, Ayal Kimhi, Lukas Menkoff, Carsten Schröder and Joachim Winter